Writing on the above subject under date fourmber 28th the correspondent of the N. C. Daily News remarks : -

On Saturday morning the attention of our residents was arrested by a resplendent new fligof brilliant colours and most ample preportions which streamed from the flig-steff of the Girman Consulate, and it was a matter of much . p. culstion what this glorious me ear could mean. Coriosity was at length set at rest by the information that it belonged to the Uni'ed Kingdoms of Sweden and Norwiy, and was intended to announce to the world the arrival of Consul-General Carl Bock to settle the Sungpu case. He came accompanied by his S cretary, a native gentleman named Laisun, and with the full distention of making a perfect settlement this

He lost no time in getting into correspondance with the native authorities, and constant interviews between him and them have been going forward ever since. Of course what passes at these interviews is known to no ourside mortal. Wild horses could not drag a word of it out of the Consul-General, but the following may be accepted as a preity accurate statement of the progress of events up to date :-- The Consul-General claimed to have an understanding with the Viceroy that, first, the guilty parties w uld he se'zed and punished; second, a suitable Indempity would be paid; third, the mis inn. should be established at Sungpoy and fourth, the Maci fing district magistrate should be degraded. The Consul-General had represented these points home to his Government, as the least that could be demanded, and as egreed to by the Chicero. so he had now been ordered to come and rettle the case on these terms. Further he was Certrons of bolding an enquiry into the cases himself, and would be glad to have arrangements: made for it

His friend the Viceroy, however, is geiting old; and his memory is not slengether what it should, be, so he has totally falled to recollect this: understanding. He willingly acknowled red: bis, obligation to se'se the guilty, which, according to him, had already been done, and The "Moving Waxworks" at Mount Kellett on to discurs at once, how much but nothing more. persistence which few would have given him credit for, sticks to his four points, while the Viceroy with equil determination refuses to yield an inch, so the m. t'er srems to be at a

On Wednesday, the Consul-General, accompanied by Vice-Consul Thyen had an interview with his Excellency in the vice-regal yaman which listed from ten o'clock in the morning till after midday, and ended with leaving all parties pretty much as they w re. I have been furnished with the following report of the proceedingsnot by the Consul-General, I may state, who somehow seems to have no love for publicity -and while I connot guarantee that it is aboulutely accurate, I believe it gives the general drift of what took place :--

The two foreign gentlemen entered the yamen sione. Although the Corsul-General had brought an interpeter from Shanghai with him, he apparent'y had received no invitation to be present, so once more the Viceroy's men did duty as translators. The Hankow Taotal, "Yun-the gentleman who had the management of the Chou Han cist-accompanied by Ye Tsotsi-the same who settled the Wusuch and Ichang efficirs-came over at an early hour, and had a long preliminary interview with his Excellency, who was thus primed with all the information which these experienced agents had been able to extract from the Consul-General in the course of three days' interviews, and posted up as to the best way of dealing with him. They also brought with them if mi the Hankow side a very filr spread of refreshments, including the inevitable champagne and cigars, which were laid out in proper fashion in the reception room, and then they vanished in the background.

The Viceroy received his visitors graciously enough, and after the usual preliminaries, began the ball by asking the Consul-General what he had come up to do this time, Mr. Bock replied that he had come to enquire into the Sungru case, and settle the matter properly The Victor was delighted to bear this, and suggested that the sorner he went down to Huargehow and bigin his enguly the better, as they had been waiting for him there a long time. When he returned the could have some further talk on the matter. The Consul-General, however, had four poirts which he wished the Viceroy to sgree to at the outset, these being :-- 1. The proper purishment of the guilty; 2. The payment of an indemnity; 3. The degridation of the Machen magistrate: 4 The re-establishment of the Swedish mission in Sungpu. His Excellency thought that it was not yet the time to discuss these points, and held that the proper way of preceeding was to enquire into the matter first, and the talk about the settlement of it. To settle it first and enquire into it afterwards was quite contrary to right principles. Mr. Pock repli d that he knew what it was to fall into his Excellency's trip, but that this time he was rw ke and would not be caught napping again. If the Viceroy would agree to his four points, which were perfectly just and the very minimum of what he demanded, they could go on, but if there were to be denied there was no use further troubling in the matter. This way of putting it, how ver, did not meet with his Exceller cy's approval. It was contrary to all reason and precedent, and he could have nothing more to say.

The Consul-General began to speak of what in that case would happen should the matter go to Peking, and warned the Viceroy to beware of the displeasure of the Tsungli Yamen. But Chang $1.485,000 and $1.075.000 respectively. Chih-tung had ro feer of any danger from that quarter. Clad in innocence, and standing on right principles, he had not ing to dread. Al the same, however, he proceeded to the discussion of the prints. As to the first and second, he would agree to either they pleased. If they wished heads they could have them; and if they preferred tacls they could have them-but not both. The Chinese could not be held responsible for unforescen and unavoidable-on the Chinese side-even's lik the affile of Sungpu. which had really been caused by the obstinacy of the missionaries, but still they would do something. Which would be lik best? Ultimately both heads and tacks were agreed to. Two of the former, but the number of the latter not decided. A'so that five persons should be banished-s me say ten, although it is hard to see where they are to get the raw material to meet these demands, sa they have only one individual in hand squinst whom there seems to be any evidence of guilt, and him they have of late quietly withdrawn from the case-I refer to Li Kiz chung. As to the degradation of the Macheng haien, the Viceroy was willing to attend to that and to move him to another district, but the re-establishment of the Mission never could be permitted, at least not fir a number of years. So the interview ended, leaving as I sail all concerned pretty much "as You were,"

The Consul-General is still here, and the Taotals are interviewing him again, exceedingly anxious to have him a t cut for Humechow, Macheng, or anywhere, trusting no doubt to the chapter of accidents, and their own blandishments to bring him to a more pliable frame of mind.—It is since elv. to be bored, however, that he will stand to his guns. His Excellency is reported to have treated his dear friend this time with considerable discourtesy. He scolded him, and paid him such a left handed compliment as to a k if he ever had handled any important case before. He was not anything Ilke so nice as he was last time.

OFFICES: HONGKONG AND YOKOHAMA.

THE object of the Company is to form and. Manufacture of Watches of all kinds and descriptions.

The founders of the Company are possessed of a plant of machinery complete in every particular, of the newest design and the finest workmanship, and adapted for the making of all implements used in the watch trade as well as the making of watches. It is well known that machinery has effected a complete revolution in the watch trade and it is confidently expected that by availing itself of the comparatively cheap labour of this country this Company will be able to supply the trade in all parts of the world with an article which for excellence of workmanship and cheapness of price will dely competition. Mr. P. H. Wheeler, the Superintendent of the Company, has been for many years engaged in developing watch-making machinery, and the testimonials from his former employers testify to his business ability, skill, and integrity. The machiners of which the founders are possessed has been perfected under his superintendence and a considerable part thereof is of his inven-

possessed of ten thousand watches in various stages of completion which are the out-turn of the said Machinery; and material on hand sufficient to turn out about twenty-five thousand more. It will thus be seen that It is not an untried plant which the founders have acquired, but one which has already given proofs of its excellence. It was only the advantage of obtaining a cheaper, labour market than can be found in the United States that has induced them to work the business in Japan.

It is an established fact that the principal factories. in the United States in seven years

paid 300 per cent. dividend on a capital of Six

Million Dollars : and that was done on a wage basis of $1.50 (201d) per operative, the factories employing six thousand hands. If the difference in the rate of labour in this country is taken into will be assured to realise to the full the expectations of the founders. The profits of watch-1.00 making are based entirely on the price of labour. It is not in the labour market only that an advantage will be obtained. Coal and other materials can be purchased in this country at a lower rate than in the United States. And besides all these advantages, which are great, there is one of still greater importance, the knowledge to be obtained of the requirements of the local-trade, of the trade for China, and that of "The Straits" and India. The Company will be capable of supplying a watch of the best workmanship to the population of these large and important countries at a price far below any watch of like character that has ever been offered to those mackets.

The Company has been registered in Hong. kong as a Limited Company. The founders take and acquire 30,000 shares of the stock of the Company in payment for the machinery plant and stock and their labour and experience in preparing and procuring the machinery and stock.

of the Company may be inspected at the offices of the Company, No. 10 Bund, Yokohama. Applications for shares should be made on
